HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO BE TESTED SATURDAY
FOR FOUR SCHOLARSHIPS

MISSOULA--

About 30 outstanding seniors from western Montana high schools will be tested and interviewed on the University of Montana campus Saturday (May 2) as candidates for four scholarships in teacher education.

Winners and alternates will be selected on the basis of high school achievement, scholastic aptitude, character and interest, and evaluation from confidential information and interviews, according to Elaine White, chairman of the UM School of Education Scholarship Committee.

The Montana Federation of Women's Clubs, District 2, is making two $100 scholarships available to two outstanding high school seniors who plan to prepare for elementary or high school teaching and who plan to enroll at one of the Montana University System units for this preparation. These scholarships are available to seniors in the following counties: Beaverhead, Deer Lodge, Granite, Lake, Madison, Mineral, Missoula, Powell, Ravalli, Sanders, and Silver Bow.

The UM Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, men's professional education fraternity, is offering a $100 scholarship to a senior boy who is planning to prepare for teaching.

The Ravalli County Chapter of the Montana Education Association, in cooperation with the MEA Chapter in Hamilton, is awarding a $100 scholarship to a high school senior from Ravalli County who is planning to prepare for teaching.
